BROKE ALL DRINKING RECORDS A New Bedford Dispatch to the Philadelphia Record says that Big Jim Conn reand Litle Jim Shannon broke all drinking records here one day recently. In two hours they put rway, between them, just 20 gallons of hard cider, "and he was still thirs"y," said Big Jim, after bey had emptied the last jug.

It was that morning, however, that he used the statement. The drinking record went to smash. Big Jim and L't le Jim, who are old pals, started fishing. They wound up at a cider mill where cider of last year's seasoning was selling at 25 cents a gallon. And they spent all the money they had with them.

After it was over they tried to put the

After it was over they tried to put the mill out of business and finally went to sleep in the press. Neither of them is the worst for wear.

HAMILTON & CO.,

This is a momestous period in the history of this country—two great parties buttling for political supremosey. This is true in no greater degree with parties than with business houses and many times in the bustle and burrah incident to increasing trade one is apt to represent an article 100 per cent better than it really is. It has been said that "a word to the wise is sufficient," but our experience has taught us that the bulk of the people buying goods today cannot be led by dece-tive. me'hods—they have to be shown. We want to say to you that any goods we place our stamp of approval of are justes we repre ent them. A triel order of any brand we advertise will prove what we say to be true. We want to submit for your consideration this week a few of our medium grades of Whiskies, which we guaranteed will give satisfaction.
